Entrepreneurship Development Cell

From the Director's Desk:

Entrepreneurship is increasingly recognized as an important driver of economic growth of a country. Government of India has recognized the importance of entrepreneurship and has introduced programs like "Make in India" & "Start-up India". Prime Minister of India is taking personal interest in these programs and putting in a lot of thrust on "Make in India" and "Start-up India", as part of his vision towards driving India as the industrially developed country. In keeping with the ideology of the Prime Minister of India, every professional as well as technical and other educational institution have to guide and encourage the students towards developing initiative and urge in them towards promoting themselves as the future entrepreneurs.

The National Education Policy (NEP) 2020 promotes entrepreneurship and innovation by integrating vocational education and skill development into mainstream schooling and higher education. It encourages the establishment of on-campus support mechanisms, such as Entrepreneurship Development Cells (EDCs) and Research & Development Cells (RDCs), to foster an entrepreneurial mindset and provide practical support. EDCs in higher educational institutions (HEIs) can build upon this foundation, offering advanced skill development and guidance for turning these skills into viable business ideas. The NEP emphasizes vibrant university industry linkages and the provision of student internships with local industries and research organizations. EDCs can serve as the institutional mechanism to facilitate these connections, bridging the gap between academic institutions and the real world by connecting students with industry experts, mentors, and potential investors. A primary goal of the NEP's approach to entrepreneurship is to encourage students to become "creators of future enterprises rather than mere job seekers". EDCs support this by offering Entrepreneurship Development Programmes (EDPs), mentoring, and handholding support for student startups. NEP 2020 aims to bridge academia and industry by incorporating innovation-driven learning models. Overall NEP Curriculum also highlighted on the Skill Oriented Courses integrating Academic Curriculum into a Skill Driven Oriented Curriculum to meet the industry needs.

For achieving this objective every institution has to make it a point to start "ENTREPRENEURSHIP DEVELOPMENT CELL" in their institutions. The Establishment of the University EDC came into effect on 26th April, 2024 in collaboration with PRIME STARTUP HUB, under MBMA, Govt. of Meghalaya, under the leadership & guidance of Mr. Alert Archie Rymbai, the Director of E-Cell, and the Coordinator E-Cell, Ms. Ephanisha Marboh. The E-Cell focuses on developing entrepreneurial skills among students through workshops, mentorship programs, and interactive sessions. William Carey University, Meghalaya, Entrepreneurship Development Cell as one of the academic institutes in collaboration with PRIME Meghalaya has been selected by the Government of Meghalaya as one of its Incubators in the state to support all aspiring entrepreneurs. The E-Cell of the University also won the "First Prize in the Impact Week 2024" organized by PRIME Meghalaya held in Martin Luther Christian University. We are also actively engaged in the CM Business Catalyst Project (CMBC) under the initiative State Government of Meghalaya and Indian Institute of Management, (IIM) Shillong.

The E-Cell strives to ignite the entrepreneurial spirit in young minds and equip them with the tools to succeed in their ventures. It has consistently benefited from the support and guidance of the Director and the dedication of its faculty and student members. We are looking forward for successful outcomes from the young and aspiring entrepreneurs. The aim of Entrepreneurship Development Cell (EDC) is to develop and strengthen entrepreneurial qualities in the budding professionals who have the zeal, enthusiasm and desire to develop the idea of self-employment can be motivated to start their own ventures. Our university provides infrastructure and technical support to the students having innovative ideas that may transform in to new products and services for their betterment and that of the society and for generating employment/Wealth in the society. EDC also assists all the aspirants with mentoring, planning and execution of their start up idea to turn into a reality. The EDC has maintained a pool of Sponsors like banks, national entrepreneurship, District Industries centers, training agencies and suppliers, who are willing to help the budding entrepreneurs

Hence an Entrepreneurship Development Cell was constituted in the University with a dedicated team of actively working members of faculty having exposure to industry, along with some student representatives. Aspiring entrepreneurs are groomed with the necessary inputs on how to be a successful entrepreneur through workshops and seminars involving eminent personalities from the industry. Through the EDC, we encourage the students to consider self-employment as a career option, providing necessary training in Entrepreneurship skills through standardized courses. The cell also organizes different activities and events from time to time to train and motivate the students on choosing entrepreneurship as a career.

NOTIFICATION ON ANTI-RAGGING

Ragging may be defined as any disorderly conduct, whether by words spoken or written, or by an act that has the effect of teasing, treating or handling with rudeness a fresher or a junior student. It also includes any undisciplined activity that causes or is likely to cause annoyance, hardship, or psychological harm, or raises fear in a fresher or any other student. Any act requiring a student to perform something they would not do in the ordinary course, and which results in shame, embarrassment, or adversely affects the physique or psyche of a fresher or junior student, is considered ragging. To curb the menace of ragging in higher educational institutions, the University Grants Commission (UGC) framed Anti-Ragging Regulations in pursuance of the judgment of the Hon'ble Supreme Court dated 8 May 2009 in Civil Appeal No. 887/2009. These regulations are mandatory for all universities and colleges. The UGC has also established a 24×7 Anti-Ragging Helpline with the toll-free number 1800-180-5522 and the email ID helpline@antiragging.in, where students can report any incident of ragging.

To eliminate ragging in all its forms, William Carey University has adopted a strict Zero Tolerance Policy since its inception. No act of ragging, whether major or minor, shall go unnoticed, and strict action will be taken against any individual involved, as per UGC guidelines. The University takes numerous measures to prevent ragging on campus. The prospectus clearly states that ragging in any form is banned and punishable. A dedicated Anti-Ragging Cell has been established to encourage students to report incidents of ragging. CCTV cameras have been installed at vital points across the campus, and continuous counselling and sensitization of students are carried out to prevent such behaviour. Workshops and seminars are conducted every year to create awareness among students. Surprise inspections of classrooms, toilets, staff rooms, practical laboratories and other areas are carried out regularly by members of the Anti-Ragging Cell, and anti-ragging posters and notices are displayed prominently across the campus, including at the Admission Centre, Departments, Library, Canteen and other common facilities. Each student and parent is required to submit an online anti-ragging undertaking every academic year at www.antiragging.in, in accordance with the 2nd Amendment to the UGC Regulations. Students are strongly encouraged to report any unsocial or suspicious behaviour to the Anti-Ragging Cell of the University.

The UGC Regulations on Curbing the Menace of Ragging (2009), formulated under the directives of the Hon'ble Supreme Court of India, aim to eliminate ragging inside and outside higher educational institutions by prohibiting it, preventing its occurrence and punishing those who indulge in it. Ragging includes acts such as teasing, abusing, or behaving rudely with fresher or junior students; indulging in rowdy or undisciplined activities that cause physical or psychological harm; forcing students to perform acts that cause shame, torment or embarrassment; physical or sexual abuse, obscene acts or gestures, harassment, academic disruptions caused by seniors, financial extortion or forced expenditure, public insults, online harassment and any act that affects the mental health and self confidence of a student with or without the intent to derive sadistic pleasure or show authority.

It is mandatory for every student and parent to submit an Anti-Ragging Affidavit at the time of admission and every academic year thereafter during registration. The online affidavit system available at www.antiragging.in stores all details in a central database, ensuring compliance with UGC regulations and Supreme Court directives. This system simplifies the process for institutions and ensures nationwide uniformity in anti-ragging documentation.

William Carey University has implemented several strong measures to create a ragging-free environment. The University has established a fully functional Anti-Ragging Cell to monitor, prevent and address any incidents related to ragging. The University has also introduced a dedicated Anti-Ragging Helpline +916009905259 and an official Anti-Ragging email: dswwcu@williamcareyuniversity.ac.in. Every year, the University observes Anti-Ragging Day on 12th August and conducts Anti-Ragging Week from 12th to 18th August, during which workshops, awareness talks, orientation programmes, poster campaigns and slogan drives are organized to educate students about the ill effects of ragging. Additionally, the University has strengthened campus surveillance through CCTV monitoring, conducts regular surprise inspections of classrooms, laboratories and common areas, and provides frequent counselling sessions to promote a healthy and respectful campus environment. Posters, banners and notices related to anti-ragging policies are displayed prominently across campus to ensure constant awareness. Any student found indulging in ragging will face strict disciplinary action as per UGC guidelines, which may include suspension from classes, expulsion, rustication, withdrawal of scholarships or benefits, prohibition from examinations or campus activities, or filing of an FIR under applicable laws. Students are urged to immediately report any incident or suspicious behaviour related to ragging to the Anti-Ragging Cell for prompt action.
